ANNUAL REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

At the close of a year of unusual experiences, both of sorrow and of joy, I feel that our Union has special cause for gratitude and rejoicing. Our growth in actual figures and statistics has been most encouraging, but far more so is the beautiful spirit of triumph over sadness, and unflinching devotion to every part of our work, which has been manifested by our women in every part of the State. A year ago, as we gathered in our Annual Session, and listened to that wonderful last message from our wonderful leader, Miss Heck, it seemed to many of us impossible to face the future without her leadership and guidance. But today, looking backward over the year, it would seem that, even in that sad hour, something of her own gracious spirit had laid hold of the hearts of the women whom she loved so tenderly, and that, inspired by her own beautiful example of unflinching faith and courage, they determined to press forward to the fulfilment of her command to "Be joyful, knowing His purposes are good, not evil, to His children."

The Year in Retrospect.

Let us glance briefly at the plans that have been followed throughout the year, and their accompanying results.

As usual, the first month of our first quarter was spent largely in preparation for our Annual Meeting, in New Bern. With the courage and inspiration there gained, we turned joyously to the task of putting the New Year's plans into action. During March and April the Annual Minutes, quarterly letters, report blanks, apportionment cards, and other literature for the year were prepared and sent to the Societies. A great deal of time and care was expended by all the officers, in the preparation of the Associational Year Book for the Superintendents, with suggested program for Associational meetings and record blanks for all reports and statistics. The usual amount of correspondence was done by all the officers, and an unusually large number of Home Mission programs and envelopes sent out, orders for these continuing to come in until the very last of the quarter.

May is always a memorable month, because of the Annual Meeting of our Southern W. M. U. and the gathering in Houston marked a truly great occasion. There, as in our own State meeting, we were ever conscious of the invisible presence of our absent President, whose soul-stirring message thrilled every hearer with a deeper desire for service. It was a wonderfully triumphant meeting, marked by successful reports of the past year's work, and a joyful outlook for the future. The Secretary is deeply grateful for the privilege (made possible through your gracious generosity) of attending the Union, as your official representative.

During June the plans for Training School quarter, already begun, were completed and put before the Societies, and received with unprecedented enthusiasm and interest. We are indebted to Mrs. McLure for her beautiful message through the Recorder, and to Mrs. Moore, our Training School Trustee, for her special letter to the societies, both of which added greatly to the interest of our workers in this much-loved object.

In June also came a meeting of unusual interest. The W. M. U. sessions of the Baptist Seaside Assembly, under the leadership and direction of Miss Elizabeth Briggs, were most enjoyable and instructive. This new feature of our work will be continued this year, and I trust it may receive our enthusiastic co-operation and loyal support.

With July began the busy season of Associational meetings, nine of which were attended by the Union officers during the month. In addition to attending three of these meetings, the Secretary had the pleasure of spending two days at Ridgecrest; and helping in the W. M. U. sessions of the Southern Baptist Assembly.

The closing month of the quarter brought us unspeakable sadness in the home-going of our beloved Miss Heck, but the succeeding days brought joy again in the splendidly large gifts to the Training School, that "dear child of the Union" which she so tenderly loved. More than six hundred Societies report gifts to this object, the total contributions far exceeding our aim.

With the inspiration of this triumphant quarter we entered heartily into the autumn work, and the ever-joyous State Mission Campaign. The special program prepared in the office was carried out by nearly five hundred Societies, and the financial results of the quarter were most gratifying. Twenty Associational meetings were visited by officers of the Union, and at the Western Division Institute held at Bryson City under the helpful leadership of Mrs. W. R. Beach, Mrs. Woodall, of Asheville, represented the Central Committee.

During the fourth quarter the work went steadily forward, orders for Christmas literature and Week of Prayer programs being larger than in any preceding year, and the final reports showing an over-reaching of our aims for Foreign Missions.

Annual Reports.

Owing to the discouragingly small number of questionnaires returned last year it was decided this year to try to secure this information through annual report blanks sent out through the Associational Superintendents. Like all new plans, this one did not prove entirely successful. The blanks were not ideal in their arrangement; some of the Societies could not understand to whom the reports should be sent, therefore sent them not at all. Others, mourning the loss of the questionnaire, refused to accept a substitute. But on the whole, the plan has worked splendidly, and our reports, as a result, are more complete than they have been in several years. Forty-six reports have been received, and from them have been gleaned some interesting facts and figures.

Facts and Figures.

Two hundred and forty-three new Societies have been organized during the year, 77 Sunbeam Bands, 18 Royal Ambassador Chapters, 53 Y. W. A.'s and 95 W. M. S., making a total of 1,316 societies now actively at work, this being an increase of 154 over the number reporting last year. Six hundred tithers are reported; 500 Societies have observed the special seasons of prayer; 18 have attained Honor Roll distinction, and a large number have reached a high place on the Standard of Excellence. Two hundred and fifty Mission Study Classes are reported. The subscriptions to our mission magazines have been larger than ever before; 2,100 are reported for the Foreign Mission Journal, 700 for the Home Field and 2,200 for Royal Service, North Carolina having led all the States in the summer subscription campaign for this magazine. While this report is very encouraging it shows one significant shortcoming. The fact that we have only one-third as many subscribers to Our Home Field as to the Foreign Mission Journal may well be considered one very conclusive reason for the failure to reach our Home Mission apportionment. At the beginning of the year, while our Home Mission quarter is yet new, let us make special efforts for a larger spread of its literature, and the enlistment of a large number of our workers in Study Classes of our great Home Mission problems and opportunities.

Summary of Office Work.

Letters written, 3,241; postals, 1,933; leaflet literature, 43,558; envelopes, special offerings, 60,671; programs, 12,367;

Minutes, 1,369; circular letters, 10,155; report blanks, 9,089; annual report blanks, 1,324; mite boxes, 8,394; organization manuals, 820. Total letters and literature, 153,461.

Expenditures:

For postage and postals	$ 263.00
For printing (paid by State Board)	132.75
For office supplies	2.55
For salary, Corresponding Secretary	1,035.00
Total paid by State Board.....	$1,398.65

From W. M. U. Expense Fund (as shown in Treasurer's report), $796.29. Total expenditures for the year, $2,194.94.

Associational Work.

The reports of Associational work are most gratifying. We rejoice to note that thirty-one Associations have reached their financial apportionment, and twenty-six have made a ten per cent. increase over last year's gifts. While a large number of the Associations show a steady advance along all lines of work, a few have achieved signal success along special lines. The Caldwell wins special distinction as the only Association whose every Society has reported every quarter. In the Piedmont, only two failed to report every quarter, and only three in the Pee Dee and the Mount Zion. The Central has made the largest increase in gifts, and presents the best report of general development. The Eastern reports the largest number of new Societies, and the largest proportion of women of the churches enlisted. The Pee Dee had the largest number of Societies represented at the Associational meeting, while the West Chowan leads in number of Societies, having now 116, just twice as many Societies as churches.

Ten new Associational Superintendents have been elected during the year, making our present enrollment of active Superintendents, forty-eight. Forty-five Associational meetings have been held, a larger number than in any preceding year. Thirty-five meetings have been attended by the officers of the Union—seven by the Junior Superintendent, seven by the Y. W. A. Secretary, six by the Treasurer, and eleven by the Corresponding Secretary. Three have been attended by Mrs. Woodall, of Asheville, two by Mrs. Roddick, of Winston, and one by Mrs. Freeman, of Ahoskie, all of whom represented the Central Committee. The meetings have been almost without exception, excellently planned, and well attended. These opportunities of coming in close touch with the workers and with the varying conditions in every part of the State have been a great help to the Union officers, and already we are planning to have a representative at every meeting this year. Altogether, the growth and advance of the Associational work has been most encouraging, and we are deeply grateful to our faithful Superintendents who have labored so untiringly to achieve these splendid results. With the increased number of Associational leaders, and their ever-deepening sense of responsibility the work should continue to go forward gloriously.

Conclusion.

And now I feel that I cannot close this, my last report as your Corresponding Secretary, without expressing to you again my very sincere gratitude for the privilege of working with you for these past five years. It has been a blessing to me to know you personally, and an inspiration to watch the development of your work from year to year. For your prompt response to every call, your joyous co-operation in every plan, for your letters of loving interest and encouragement, and more than all, for your prayers, I am unspeakably grateful, and I can wish for my successor nothing better in the years to come than a continuance of this same sweet spirit of loyal helpfulness which I feel sure your hearts are already pledging her. In severing my official connection with the work, I do not take from you the loving and prayerful interest that will always follow every work and worker of the North Carolina W. M. U. Our years together have been blest far beyond our hopes and expectations, and I know that, in this hour, your hearts, like mine, are very humble, as we reflect upon God's wonderful goodness to us. Let us remember that these blessings are not an earned reward of the past, on our part, but rather, a borrowed trust for the future, and in that realization let us press forward even more earnestly to the fulfilment of these rich promises. May the New Year upon which you are entering be the most glorious in your history, and may each succeeding year bring you an increase of joy and blessing in His service, until time is no more, but eternity is ours, and we are—God's!

BLANCHE BARRUS,
Corresponding Secretary.

At the conclusion of her report, the Union extended Miss Barrus a rising vote of thanks for her splendid service as Corresponding Secretary during the past five years.

Mrs. W. N. Jones presented her annual report as Treasurer, giving the totals by Associations.

The report of Y. W. A. Secretary was submitted by Mrs. C. E. Mason.

ANNUAL REPORT OF Y. W. A. SECRETARY.

Y. W. A. work has been a new experience for the Secretary the past year. The sense of responsibility and the effort to become acquainted and identified with the girls have brought a rich reward in a more definite interest and love for their work.

The greatest problem, as in other lines, but with added emphasis in this, is the demand for the highest type of leadership, a leadership that is all-around qualified and that is willing to pay the full price of earnest labor, unquestioned influence, and evident spirituality. We realize that there may be some measure of indulgence below or above this age, for there is not the consciousness below, and we expect more charity of maturer years.

There are 187 Societies reporting to the Treasurer this year, 43 more than last year. We have enrolled 53 new Societies within the year; only 26 of these have reported to the Treasurer as yet. Many are of recent organization.

We have two college circles, Chowan and Meredith, that are liberal contributors. The Y. W. A.'s gave last year, $5,744.45. This was a gain of only $245, less than 5 per cent over last year. The first, second, and fourth quarters good increase was made, but in the third quarter there was a serious falling off.

There have been many notes of revival of interest in some old Societies. A few of the new ones are large and promising but we are not unmindful of the fact that some small Societies cannot be excelled as far as comparative results are concerned.

Six individual Societies have been visited—three in Charlotte, Shelby, Rockingham, and Laurinburg; seven Association meetings attended; four mission study classes led in different Societies; three Bible study classes led; 245 personal letters written. Quarterly letters and all other literature are sent from the Raleigh office.

It has been proved that the best means of improvement are to keep familiar with the Standard of Excellence and watch our records, reporting regularly.

Can we not have at least 100 Societies reporting every quarter this year? This surely is possible. There were only 50 this year. An aim is very important, let ours be the building up of Christian character in creating and strengthening Christ-like principles for faithfulness in conduct, giving and service.

“We plan and plan, then pray

That God may bless our plan.

So runs our dark and doubtful way,

That scarce shall lead unto the day—

So runs the life of man!

But, hearken! God saith, Pray!

And He will show His plan,

And lead us in His shining way

That leadeth on to perfect day—

Each God-surrendered man!”

MRS. C. E. MASON,

Y. W. A. Secretary.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Junior Superintendent, presented the following:

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT.

When we closed our Annual Session last year in New Bern the Band Leaders who were present started back to their respective homes with renewed determination for advancing the mission work of the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors. The story of how this has been accomplished fills us with joy and thanksgiving.

If you have ever tried to write a letter to a dear friend after a year of silence, you know the difficulty of getting in order the things you wish to tell. Such a difficulty confronts me in making this annual statement of the year's progress of the Junior Mission work.

As the officers of the State Union have visited the Associations, they have brought back reports of the interest manifested everywhere in the children's work.

The Band Superintendent had the pleasure of attending seven Associational meetings: the South Yadkin, Piedmont, Tar River, Mt. Zion, Flat River, Little River, and Neuse-Atlantic. At most of these the Sunbeams gave very interesting programs and inspired others to attempt greater things with their own Bands.

In at least five Associations, Superintendents of Junior Societies have been appointed and already the effect of their work is evident. Looking over some papers recently an old quarterly letter to the Sunbeams came to light. The fact was mentioned with great pride that the Robeson Association sent reports from seven Bands that quarter. Now we find the Robeson with thirty-five Bands and the West Chowan with forty, each of them having eighteen Bands that have reported every quarter. In point of gifts the Robeson leads the Sunbeams with $528.24. The West Chowan comes next with $465.19. The greatest increase in gifts was made by the Central with a gain of $111.87 over last year. The West Chowan gained $91.03; the Robeson $76.64. Others that have made marked gain are the Chowan, Mt. Zion, South Fork, Pee Dee and South Yadkin. The greatest increase in Bands actually reporting is South Fork, seven; Mecklenburg-Cabarrus, five; Cumberland, Central, Tar River and West Chowan with a gain of four each.

The total number of Bands reporting this year is 411, an increase of 62 over the number reporting last year. The Royal Ambassadors report 46 Chapters, two more than in 1915. There have been 77 new Bands and 18 new Chapters enrolled. It may readily be seen that the loss in Bands and Chapters is smaller than ever before.

From the Treasurer's report you have already learned the total of Sunbeam gifts, $4,470.01, and of Royal Ambassadors gifts $381.70. This shows the remarkable gain of $645 for the Sunbeams. Should the same gain be made another year it will bring the children up to their long-desired $5,000.

The Royal Ambassador gifts have gone back $7.00, but we knew from the beginning that the boys would grow up and go off to college and that there would necessarily be an ebb and flow in their contributions.

The average gift per Band is $10.90; per Chapter $8.50. One-third of the Bands are above this average, the other two-thirds just reaching or below it. The great work therefore that lies ahead of the Leaders is to push up the average by larger gifts from the two-thirds that fall below $10.00.

Besides attending seven Associational meetings, the Band Superintendent was also present during the Baptist Seaside Chautauqua at Wrightsville Beach. Much time also has been given to office work, writing personal letters, quarterly letters, and preparing programs and plans for the children's work. Special envelopes were designed and printed for the State Mission offering; patterns for the little stockings sent out as suggestions for the Christmas offering. The Recorder Department has been kept up and long lists of Dollar Sunbeams published.

With the earnest prayer that this year's work may be but the seed sowing, that in future years may bring forth abundant fruit in consecrated lives and joyous obedience and service for the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS,

The reports as a whole were adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL.

Our W. M. U. Training School, of Louisville, Ky., began the present session September 27, 1915. Fifty-nine students were enrolled at this time. Every room was filled, which served to emphasize the need of finishing the enlargement fund for the new building.

Two of our North Carolina girls are attending the Training School this year. Miss Alda Grayson, of Rutherfordton, one of our scholarship girls, after taking the course at the Training School, expects to take medical training preparatory to going as a foreign missionary. Miss Thomas, of Shallotte, was provided with a scholarship also. The Wadesboro W. M. S. gave a scholarship to Miss Nan Trantham, of South Carolina, making three scholarships from North Carolina.

The Good Will Center, which opened in October, 1912, is sufficiently advanced for us to give praise to God for its wonderful influence. Scores who have been physically and spiritually blessed testify to the great transformation wrought in their lives.

Of course North Carolina wants a large share in erecting the chapel as a memorial to our lamented President, Miss Fannie E. S. Heck. We have this year contributed to this fund more than one thousand dollars. In addition to this, Mrs. M. A. Heck, mother of our leader, has given towards this chapel $500.

The Training School quarter was observed during the summer. We were rejoiced with the hearty response from the Societies. Our gifts came not from a few Societies, but many were represented in the offerings. We do not mention it to boast, but in sincere gratitude that our State made the largest offering to the Training School of any State in our Southern W. M. U. The total amount contributed during the year was $4,023.13.

We would ask your aid in seeking out the bright, strong, consecrated girls who ought to attend the Training School. We commend you heartily for what you have already done, and feel assured of your interest and prayers in the work yet to be done.

Does not this message from one of our scholarship girls find an echo in your hearts? "If there is anything special you want us to help you pray for please let us know. Even if we are just two we feel that we want to be vitally connected with our State work." May we realize as never before our oneness in Christ Jesus.

MRS. HIGHT C. MOORE,
Trustee for North Carolina.

Mrs. McLure, Principal of the Training School, addressed the Union. Subject, "Candle Lighting."

Mrs. Mason followed Mrs. McLure, choosing as her subject: "Fortune Telling." Mrs. Mason's talk was based on the Y. W. A. text for the year, "Who knoweth whether Thou art come to the Kingdom for such a time as this."

The session was concluded with a Y. W. A. conference, in which the following topics were discussed: The Y. W. A. Leader, discussion lead by Miss Ina Dunlap. The Devotional Program, Miss Eugenia Clark. Program-Making. Miss Pearl Harper. Gifts, Miss Elsie Hunter.

Adjourned with prayer by Dr. Green.

THURSDAY EVENING, 7:30.

Rev. C. H. Durham presiding.

Singing, "Coronation."

Rev. W. F. Staley read the Report of Committee on Resolutions.

Benediction by Rev. Mr. Durham.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 24.

In the absence of Mrs. A. W. Biggers, Mrs. J. R. Pace spoke of the Southern Baptist Assembly at Ridgecrest.

There was a motion to send telegrams of sympathy from the Union to Mrs. A. W. Biggers, of Ridgecrest, and Mrs. Green, of Thomasville. The Chair requested Mrs. William Archer to prepare the messages.

Recommendations of the Executive Committee for the year 1916-17 were read by Miss Barrus. Adopted without change.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1916-1917.

Believing that the enlarged opportunities in our mission fields today call for a larger service and a fuller consecration to the work of our Woman's Missionary Union, your Committee recommends:

I. Watchword. That we go forward along all lines of our work the coming year, and that we keep constantly in mind as an incentive to service our watchword, "For ye serve the Lord Christ."

II. Points of Emphasis. That we put the things of the Spirit first in our lives and in all of our plans, encourage systematic Bible study, and united prayer on the part of individuals and societies and give our best efforts in training the younger members of our churches in mission thought and activity.

III. Division Leaders. That we group our Associations in five divisions—the Vice-Presidents of the Union to serve as leaders of these divisions, holding Institutes in their divisions when requested to do so by the Associational Superintendents and assisting these Superintendents in their Associational meetings wherever it is practicable and aiding them in any way possible.

IV. Special Seasons and Offerings. That we continue and emphasize our present plan of work, giving the first quarter March, April and May to the work of Home Missions, urging the importance of observing the Week of Prayer and Special offering for Home Missions in April. The summer quarter—June, July and August—to have as its special objects the Louisville Training School and the Margaret Fund for the Education of Missionaries' children. The third quarter—September, October and November—to be devoted to State Missions, with a special program and offering on State Mission Day in September. The fourth quarter—December, January and February—to be the Foreign Mission period with its special offering for China at Christmas, and we ask that every society make a special effort to observe the first week in January as a Week of Prayer for World Wide Missions—and wherever possible ask the church to unite with them in this service.

V. Organization and Development. That we endeavor to organize new societies, W. M. S., Y. W. A., G. A.'s, Sunbeams and Royal Ambassador Chapters wherever it is advisable, and that special effort be made to bring existing organizations to a greater efficiency.

VI. Training School. That we endeavor to raise for the Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., the sum of $2,543.00, to be appropriated as follows: To current expenses, $335.00. To three scholarships, at $175.00 each, $525.00. To enlargement fund, $1,667.00. That gifts exceeding this aggregate be added to the fund for erection of the Heck Memorial Chapel. That the Training School be our special object during the summer quarter, ending August 31.

VII. Personal Service. That we continue to urge each society to study the physical and spiritual needs of its own community and to strive to meet these needs by personal service. To this end we recommend that a Personal Service Committee be appointed in each society to direct this work and to keep a record of work done and to report to the chairman of the Personal Service Committee at the close of each year.

VIII. Mission Literature. Realizing the importance of more information in regard to mission work, we recommend that each society appoint a Literature Committee, whose duty it shall be to secure subscriptions to Royal Service, The Foreign Mission Journal, The Home Field and The Biblical Recorder. This committee shall also collect and file mission information from all possible sources, for the use of program committees.

IX. Mission Libraries. That we recommend the establishment of Travelling Missionary Libraries in our Associations. These libraries to consist of ten or twenty mission text-books to be furnished by a Society in the Association and after the books have been circulated throughout their own membership to be given to the Associational Superintendents to send out to the other societies in her Association. After all the societies in the Association have had the use of the library it is to be sent to some Association that has no library or exchanged for the library from some other Association.

X. News Items. That the Vice-Presidents of the Union and Associational Superintendents send to the Editor of the W. M. U. department in the Biblical Recorder items of special interest and help in making this feature of our work more interesting and helpful.

XI. Mission Study. That Mission Study Classes be organized in each society for the better training of our young people and for more definite knowledge of mission conditions. For text-books for these classes the coming year we recommend, for Home Mission Study—"Baptist Missions in the South," by Dr. V. I. Masters; for Foreign Mission Study—"The King's Highway," Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery.

XII. Annual Meetings. That we would emphasize the importance of every society sending a representative to their Associational meeting and of entering heartily into the plans of their superintendent and we recommend that these meetings be held at a separate time and place from the General Association wherever this is practicable. That delegates be sent to the Annual Session of the Woman's Missionary Union, who shall give a report of this meeting to the society.

XIII. Summer Assemblies. That we co-operate with the Convention Committee of the Baptist Seaside Assembly and conduct a department of W. M. U. work for a period of one hour for four days at the meeting to be held at Wrightsville Bear, June 26, this meeting to be under the supervision of the State Vice-Presidents, and that we pledge our hearty co-operation and support in the W. M. U. work of the Southern Baptist Assembly at Ridgecrest.

XIV. That we adopt the following standard of excellence for Woman's Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

Standard of Excellence.

1. At least twelve regular meetings a year with a devotional exercise and a definite missionary program.

2. An increase in membership during the year of at least ten per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year until all eligible members are enlisted.

3. An increase of gifts to missions of not less than ten per cent of the preceding year's contributions to similar objects.

4. Regular reports to State Officers each quarter of the year.

10. *Organization and fostering of a Missionary Society in a neighboring church, or for the younger people of the local church.

*To be omitted for Junior Societies.

To Foreign Missions	$19,500.00
To Home Missions	13,000.00
To State Missions	11,600.00

To Sunday School Board	150.00
To Expense Fund	750.00
Total	$49,000.00

Mrs. M. L. Kesler read the Report on Personal Service, which was received.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PERSONAL SERVICE.

The Personal Service Department of the Woman's Missionary Union is the newest branch of our work, and yet it is as old as the Christian religion. Much of Christ's time was taken up with personal service for the needy who came to Him.

When going back to the Father He passed on this work to His disciples, telling them that they should do greater things than He had done.

Ever since Peter found the women weeping and showing the garments which Dorcas had made for them there has been great need for this work. The opportunity confronting us is indeed great. Shall we measure up to it?

We recommend:

1. That more attention be called to this department at the regular monthly meetings.

2. That sympathy with the spiritual and material needs of the community be emphasized.

3. That mothers' meetings be held. Helpful literature may be obtained from Raleigh State Board of Health, Government Department of Labor, Washington, and a publication in Baltimore—Home Makers—price 10 cents.

4. That we realize more and more our responsibility for the colored people. That we encourage them in their missionary work by suggestion and gifts of literature that have been especially helpful to us. That we help them in a material way in their personal service work among themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. M. L. KESLER,
MRS. D. J. THURSTON,
MRS. W. M. THACKER.

The Report of Committee on Plans of Work was presented by Mrs. John Freeman. Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PLANS OF WORK.

We beg to recommend:

1. That in this crisis of our country's responsibility to the world's spiritual growth, that each woman of our Union shall awaken to her own responsibility in giving to the world the Gospel Light.

2. That as a means of growth is information we use all sources from which we can receive sound Baptist doctrine.

3. That each woman shall feel that the woman's page in the Recorder is her own and shall send to the editor all items that will promote the growth of the work.

4. That it is the duty of our W. M. S. to assume a new responsibility to the Junior organizations.

Mrs. C. Almon Upchurch presented the following Report on Sunbeam Work, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNBEAM WORK.

Believing that the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ holds a very definite command to teach and train for His service; and realizing that the success of children's mission work must depend upon the leaders, we, the leaders of Mission Bands and Royal Ambassador Chapters, acknowledge our responsibility to Him for the children of our own churches and resolve and covenant together to strive for the following:

1. Consecration.—To consecrate ourselves anew to this important work for the Master, and to hold as our highest motive the conversion of the children under our care, our prayers, plans and programs being to this end.

2. Devotional.—To give ourselves to a deeper study of the Bible as preparation for better Bible teaching in the Bands. To pray more frequently that we may lead the children to pray.

3. Mission Study.—Knowing that we cannot teach what we do not know, we will read and study mission literature as a help to arranging programs. We will subscribe to Royal Service, and if possible to the Foreign Mission Journal, Home Field,

Everyland and other mission publications, endeavoring also to put these in the homes of the children. We will adopt as our mission study book for the year "Around the World With Jack and Janet."

4. Mission Meetings.—We will try to hold our Band meetings regularly, filling our programs with mission truths in forms best suited to attract and teach the children.

5. Personal Service.—We will look carefully for some form of personal service for the children to render to the sick, sorrowing and needy of our communities.

6. Special Occasions.—We will have our Bands observe with suitable programs the special days for Home, State and Foreign Missions.

7. Offerings.—It shall be our endeavor to train the children in tithing, having them bring an offering each meeting. Special offerings shall be made on the Home, State and Foreign Mission days. We will set an aim for our Band and keep it before them during the year.

8. Dollar Sunbeams.—The names of children contributing one dollar or more to missions during a quarter shall be sent to the Band Superintendent to be printed in the Dollar Roll in the Recorder. Each Dollar Sunbeam will be presented with a book of Psalms from the Pullen Testament Fund.

9. Honor Roll of Bands.—We will send in our reports each quarter and thus be on the Gold Star list of the Honor Roll.

10. Standard of Excellence.—It shall be our effort to reach a high place in the Standard of Excellence.

11. Co-operation and Extension.—We will try to co-operate with the Primary Sunday-school teachers in mission work, also with other Mission Band leaders. We will offer help to weak Bands or to the organization of new Bands, taking part in Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador rallies whenever possible.

We, the undersigned committee, recommend the adoption and printing for distribution of the plans, aims and outlines for the year's work, as suggested by our Band Superintendent:

Mrs. W. T. Carstarphen offered the Report on Royal Ambassador Work, which was received.

REPORT ON ROYAL AMBASSADOR WORK.

As the Woman's Missionary Union looks at its family it does so with pride. Yet there is some misgiving that one branch of the family is not greater in number. We would respectfully ask your more earnest effort in the Royal Ambassador work. In dealing with this phase of the W. M. U. we are prone to sigh and excuse our inactivity, because of the difficulty of the task. Our angle of vision is wrong unless we see in this task a great blessing. If we fail to realize that the boy left untrained, becomes the man uninterested in--if not entirely opposed to--all missionary endeavor, we are in error. It is with a deep sense of our responsibility that we would:

1st. Urge a deeper interest and more earnest endeavor in the development of the Royal Ambassadors.

2nd. That while we realize the difficulty, we will persevere in our endeavor to lead the R. A.'s out into an interest in every phase of the work, possible.

3rd. That we use the Royal Service and, if possible, Every-land, and draw largely on the Educational Department of the W. M. U. in Baltimore, the Foreign Mission Board and the Home Board and in this way keep in touch with every phase of the work through these.

4th. That each band have a Mission Study Class.

5th. That we observe Home, State and Foreign Mission Days with an offering for each.

6th. That we enlist every boy eligible for membership, and even those, who though they are still under age, feel too grown up for the Sunbeams.

7th. That we be ever alert to develop an enthusiasm for personal service.

8th. That each leader recognize the importance of regular quarterly reports and systematic giving.

9th. That the Royal Ambassadors' aim for 1916-17 be: Foreign Mission, $140.00; Home Mission, $130.00; State Missions, $135.00; Expense Fund, $10.00. Total, $450.00.

10th. That we devise ways and means to enlarge these aims, if possible.

11th. That we enlist every boy possible though he may be unable to pay regularly and that in order to enable to give regularly we will endeavor to find a way for him.

12th. That we will always look into the future and see what the boy may be for uplift or downpull.

13th. That we will organize R. A.'s in churches round about us.

14. That we will not become disheartened if we touch but a few, but with our faces turned to the light, and our hearts athrob with love for humanity through the love of Christ, we will unceasingly strive, prayerfully, tactfully, and lovingly to lay the foundation for a Christian statesmanship.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We, your committee, voicing the sentiments of the Woman's Missionary Union, find it very difficult to express the depth of our gratitude for this great opportunity given us to enlarge our vision, develop our Christian activity and renew our enthusiasm for the Master's work. The renewing of sweet Christian fellowship, the incentive given for new endeavor, will go with us for days yet to come.

In view of this, be it resolved:

1. That we express our heartfelt gratitude and sincerest thanks to the Entertainment Committee for their untiring efforts in securing for each of us "the very best home in the Twin-City."

To our hostesses for their royal welcome and entertainment, anticipating our every want and gratifying our every wish.

3. We heartily thank the Baptist pastors of Winston-Salem for their co-operation and assistance; to the visiting brethren for their uplifting and inspiring messages we feel grateful, to Mr. Ed. Crosland for his valuable assistance in displaying the pictures, to President Ronthaler for his much appreciated invitation to attend the lecture at Salem Academy.

4. To the Luncheon Committee we owe our thanks for the dainty and refreshing luncheons served, to the young ladies who have served the Union so efficiently as ushers, to the choir and organist for the rendition of their excellent music.

5. To Messrs. Barker, Watkins and O'Hanlon for furnishing free postcards, to the telephone company for splendid service, to the Underwood Co. for the use of their excellent typewriter.

6. We wish to especially thank Mrs. McLure, Miss Mallory, and Miss Spainhour for their presence among us, and the inspirational messages they gave us.

7. We feel under great obligation to the city press for their splendid reports of the proceedings, and to Mrs. Woodall for her accurate account given the press.

REPORT ON Y. W. A. WORK.

Realizing the possibilities, responsibility and strength of our Young Woman's Auxiliaries in the mission work of our denomination and in the great cause of our Master, we, the Committee on Y. W. A. work, recommend the following:

1. That we strive for greater efficiency and deeper spirituality in our work for the coming year.

2. That we use the Standard of Excellence as an ideal of attainment.

3. That we endeavor to get as many Auxiliaries as possible to use the Calendar of Prayer.

4. That we use Royal Service, Our Home and Foreign Mission Journals and our leaflet literature in the preparation of programs and in gaining a deeper knowledge of mission work.

5. We urge that each Auxiliary during the year have at least one Mission Study Class.

6. That special effort be made to observe Home, State and Foreign Mission days.

7. That we endeavor to enlist every business girl in our churches in some organized mission work.

8. That every Y. W. A. have a Personal Service Committee, and that this be made a special feature of Y. W. A. work.

9. That we organize sixty-five new Societies during the coming year.

10. That we observe Promotion Day.
11. That each Auxiliary foster and organize other Auxiliaries wherever possible and that they assume a special responsibility in the organization of Girl's Auxiliaries.
12. That we attend the Missionary Institutes, Associational Meetings, and send a representative to the Annual State W. M. U. and the Missionary Conference at Blue Ridge, and to the Seaside Chautauqua.
13. That we take as our financial aim for 1916-17 a 10 per cent increase over our contributions for this year.
14. That in accordance with the request of our beloved missionary, Miss Laura Cox, of Mexico, we appropriate $600 of our Foreign Mission contributions to the support of a special worker in the school at Guaymas, provided conditions in Mexico are favorable to the continuance of our work there.
15. That each Y. W. A. leader stress the importance of sending quarterly reports regularly and promptly and that we strive to have at least one hundred Societies reporting regularly during the coming year.
16. That we strive to enlist the full co-operation of college girls; that Ann Hasseltine circles be organized in our colleges; and during the vacation months the co-operation of these students be enlisted in the Y. W. A. in our local churches.
17. That during the 1917 session of our Annual Meeting, one afternoon be given to the discussion of Y. W. A. work.
18. That we hold up before our members the ideal of a life of service and that as many of our Y. W. A. girls as possible be urged to enter our Louisville Training School to prepare themselves for definite Christian work.
